

I am going to Vaucluse House and this is what it looks like.

When I go to Vaucluse House, my teacher and classmates will come with me.

I will meet guides wearing a uniform. They will show me around the museum and tell me interesting things.

I will be told where I can safely leave my bag and where the toilets are. There will also be time for recess and lunch.

At the museum, the guides will explain any rules to me. I will be told when it is okay to touch certain things.

I will walk through some dimly lit areas in the house but I will be safe at all times.

Guides will tell me when it is time to change activities or move to another room.

I might be asked to wear a costume. That's okay as it can be fun to pretend to be someone else.

I will spend time with my classmates playing games outside.

There are lots of staircases. Some are narrow and steep so I must hold onto the handrail and be careful where I'm stepping.

Some of the rooms may look quite different from your house.

I know I'm going to enjoy the experience of the journey to the museum and the activities I do there.
