

I am going to Meroogal and this is what it looks like.

The guides will welcome me and show me around Meroogal.

When I go to Meroogal my teacher and classmates will come with me.

I will be told where I can safely leave my bag and where the toilets are. There will also be time for recess and lunch. Everyone likes to know these things!

Before I go in the house I will have to take off my shoes. My shoes will be safe outside so I can put them back on when I leave the house

At the museum, the guide will explain the rules to me. I will be told when it is okay to touch certain things.

I, or one of my classmates, might be asked to dress up in a costume. That's okay as it can be fun to pretend to be someone else in an imaginary place.

Guides will tell me when it is time to change activities or move to another room.

I might find the stairs a bit narrow but I'll be told how to use the stairs safely

Inside the house I may notice some different smells.

The guide might shake dry soap powder flakes onto my hand.

I know I'm going to enjoy the experience of the journey to the museum and the activities I do there.
