

HISTORY

Built by convict labourers between 1813 and 1818, Rouse Hill House & Farm offers a unique historic backdrop for wedding photographs and small workshops. Thirteen hectares of 19th-century rural property with a neo-classical sandstone house, farm outbuildings, paddocks and the remnants of one of the earliest gardens in Australia, make Rouse Hill House & Farm a genuine 'step back in time'.

VISITOR CENTRE

A new Visitor Centre, constructed of corrugated iron to complement the rustic outbuildings of this historic site, comes complete with modern amenities and is an ideal venue for workshops, seminars, presentations and cocktail events.

WEDDING PHOTOGRAPHY

Wedding photography is made available throughout the gardens and grounds of the timeworn farmstead. There are many unique and interesting locations to capture the rustic country charm that surrounds this historic region.
