

I am going to the old schoolhouse at Rouse Hill and this is what it looks like.

I might see a guide dressed up in a costume. They may talk and behave in really unusual ways too but they are only acting. That can be a lot of fun to see.

When I go to the old schoolhouse, my teacher and classmates will come with me.

I will be told where I can safely leave my bag and where the toilets are. There will also be time for recess and lunch. Everyone likes to know these things!

At the museum, the guide will explain the rules to me. I will be told when it is okay to touch certain things. Or even get on or inside things.

I might be asked to wear a costume and/or do some play acting. That's okay as it can be fun to pretend to be someone or something else in an imaginary place.

Guides will tell me when it is time to change activities or move to another room or even outside.

I might go into rooms that look different to my classroom with funny seats for me to sit on.

In this room there will be fun activities for me to touch and do.

I will learn lessons like children did a long time ago in the big school room

I know I'm going to enjoy my journey to the old schoolhouse at Rouse Hill and all the activities I do there.
