

HISTORY

The Historic Houses Trust makes available seven historic and unique venues for wedding ceremonies and receptions. Whether you choose to have your wedding ceremony in the stunning gardens of the 1830s sandstone mansion Vaucluse House, or with the contemporary architecture of The Mint as your backdrop, or on the grand sweeping staircase of Elizabeth Bay House with its harbour views, HHT venues has a private venue perfect for the occasion.

PERSONAL SERVICE

When you book your wedding at one of the HHT venues we will assign you a dedicated wedding coordinator to ensure that your day runs seamlessly and according to plan. Our coordinator will provide the personal touch and liaise with you during the lead-up to your wedding day. They will present a full run sheet and floor plan for your sign-off, conduct you on a final inspection of the site, recommend a range of suppliers and assist with deliveries on the day to allow you to enjoy it free of concern about the practicalities.

OUR VENUES

THE MINT

The Mint, in the heart of Sydney's CBD, was constructed between 1811 and 1816 as the southern wing of the 'Rum Hospital' and expanded in 1854 to accommodate the first colonial branch of the British Royal Mint. It offers a stylish contemporary reception venue in a private sandstone courtyard backed by magnificent historic buildings.

VAUCLUSE HOUSE

One of Sydney's most treasured estates, dating back to 1803, Vaucluse House in the eastern suburbs is surrounded by 10 hectares of picturesque gardens and grounds stretching down to Sydney Harbour. The Lone Pine Lawn is ideal for wedding ceremonies and the elegant art deco Vaucluse House Tearooms are perfect for receptions.

ELIZABETH BAY HOUSE

Once known as the 'finest house in the colony', Elizabeth Bay House is a magnificent example of colonial architecture with expansive views of Sydney Harbour. Exquisite 19th-century furnishings, a grand, sweeping staircase and an exclusive dining room make the house an excellent venue for wedding ceremonies and receptions.

ELIZABTH FARM

With its wide sandstone verandah, historic interiors and glorious 1830s garden, Elizabeth Farm provides a rustic setting for wedding ceremonies and receptions. The house, built by wool-industry pioneers John and Elizabeth Macarthur, dates from 1793 and is Australia's oldest European building.

HYDE PARK BARRACKS MUSEUM

Located in the historic precinct of Macquarie Street in the heart of Sydney's CBD, this elegant 1819 building is the perfect location for larger wedding receptions. A high wall surrounding the barracks creates a courtyard ideal for marquees, and entry is through iron gates flanked by gatehouses.

CATERING

SUPPLIERS

With our experience in staging a diverse range of events at all our venues, we can recommend suppliers with whom we have worked successfully in the past. Whatever your requirements – a wedding cake, celebrant, cars or bonboniere we can assist you:

MUSIC

Due to the Environmental Protection Authority noise guidelines amplification is permitted for vocals only at some of the HHT venues, including Vaucluse House, Elizabeth Bay House and Elizabeth farm. No DJ's or amplified bands are permitted at these properties. Many clients have engaged string groups to play background music in the garden. Please find following details of two string groups that have worked successfully at the HHT venues.
